Tuesday 4th July 2017 at 7.30pm in the Village Hall

followed rapidly by an illustrated talk on

ENGLISH MAPS

by Neil Hooper

Neil will be describing the progress of British cartography from Christopher Saxton in earliest days up to the development of satellite navigation including the growth of Ordnance Survey.

This coincides with the launch of our latest project.

We have acquired an original copy of

Grey's fascinating 1762 map of the Ashridge Estate including the village of Little Gaddesden pre Capability Brown.

Copies in several formats and sizes will be available for sale.

We will also be displaying various other historic maps and plans of the locality.

As usual - wine and nibbles will be served.

Everyone is welcome, you don't have to be a member.
